

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES [EAP]

Get started on the path to your studies with the English for Academic Purposes “EAP”

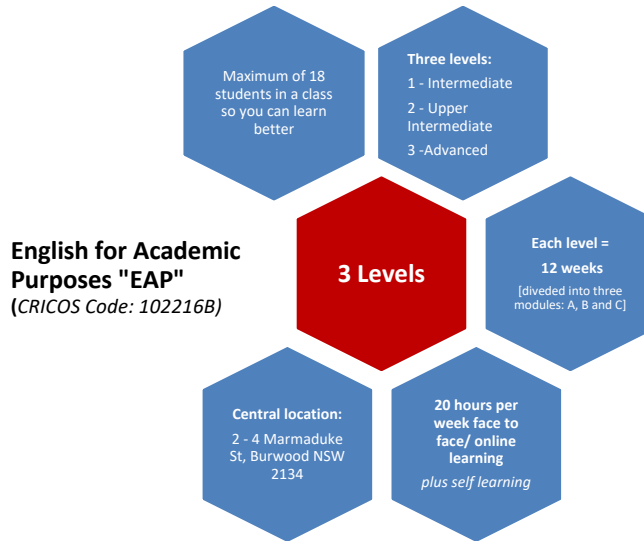

This course covers academic English: the English you will need for further study. It includes speaking, listening, writing and reading, including listening to lectures, speaking in tutorials, giving presentations, reading academic texts, and writing essays and reports. To help you with these skills, there will also be plenty of vocabulary and grammar.

Teaching is conducted face-to-face, 20 hours per week (or equivalent online/ blended teaching) in a classroom/ online environment. Additional hours each week of self-study is recommended.

Teaching sessions are trainer-led in-group sizes of up to 18 participants. The teaching program is undertaken using a planned schedule with discussions, role-plays, reading of interesting magazine articles and websites, writing to communicate with people around the world, and listening to people with a range of accents.

The Sydney Metropolitan English Institute requires offshore international students to pay their first level's fees in full and in advance so as to assess their Genuine Temporary Entrant (GTE) requirement proof for financial capacity to pay for the course.

The Sydney Metropolitan English Institute provides the option for onshore international students to pay their fees in three instalments if the student requests this option. Fees must be paid in full and in advance of the term commencing in order to maintain a valid enrolment.

APPLICATION PROCESS AT SMEI

To enrol into a course as an overseas student at Sydney Metropolitan English Institute, applicants must complete an International Student Enrolment Form available from the website. The form should be completed in full and submitted by email to: info@smei.nsw.edu.au. A simplified application and study process is illustrated below:

The application for enrolment must be accompanied by:

- Age 18 or over
- Evidence of an Intermediate level of English or higher: for example, having reached Intermediate level in General English at SMEI or other ELICOS provider
- Current Passport
- Current student visa for international students

When we receive your application, our Admissions Officer will review it for completeness. When the application is complete, the officer will organise a pre-enrolment interview with the student via phone, skype or other means. If the officer is satisfied with the applicant's documentations and interview, you will be issued a Letter of Offer, sometimes with condition, with an invoice for initial payment of fees and a Student Agreement form. This Offer is valid for 4 weeks. Within this period, you need to accept the offer by paying the fees and returning the completed Written Student Agreement, with any other documents stated in the conditions.

Upon receipt of your acceptance and approval of your application, an electronic confirmation of enrolment (eCoE) will be generated and forwarded to the Department of Home Affairs and yourself at the address provided on your application with an official receipt for the fees paid.

Offshore students can then proceed with the application for an Australia visa. It is the applicant's responsibility to apply and obtain a student visa.
